

Timothy J. Reagan was appointed to the Board of the Hudson River-Black River Regulating District in March 2021. He resides in Glenfield, and comes to the Regulating District with an extensive career as an operations leader working for global food companies focusing on quality, safety, productivity and cost improvement. Mr. Reagan previously served as a consultant for Kraft Heinz/Upstate Niagara Dairy Cooperative, and is the Past Operations Vice President of ConAgra, the Past Vice President of Manufacturing of Dannon, and held several leadership positions at Kraft Foods, including Division Manufacturing Director.

Mr. Reagan has served the Black River Area Community on several Boards of Directors including: the Lewis County Industrial Development Agency; the Development Authority of the North Country, Lewis County Agricultural Society, the Lewis County Hospital Board, the Beaverite Corporation, and as Past President of the New York State Cheese Manufacturers Association.

Mr. Reagan holds a Bachelor of Science Degree from the State University of New York at Cortland, and a Master's in Business Administration from Syracuse University.